

Announcement of Rajamangala University of Technology Krungthep

Subject Students guidelines and the performance of personnel

Due to the outbreak of the Corona virus 2019 (COVID-19)

(issue 4)

According to the university has announced students' guidelines and the performance of personnel. Due to the outbreak of the Corona virus 2019 (COVID-19) (issue 3) announcement on January 1st, 2021. To follow the guidelines of announcement of Bangkok subject: Order temporary closure of the premises (issue 35) Issued on January 1st, 2021. Which has been order to close all of education institutions' buildings due to not allow to do any activities with a large number of participants except for carry out long-distance communication or by electronic.

By virtue of Clause 24 and Clause 27 of the Rajamangala University of Technology Krungthep Act, 2005. Therefore, request to cancel issue 1 of Announcement of Rajamangala University of Technology Krungthep subject students' guidelines and the performance of personnel due to the outbreak of the Corona virus 2019 (COVID-19) (issue 3) by using these messages instead:

“Number 1: order to faculty organize online coursework and assessment in all subjects to complete the learning elements in a specific time of frame according to the suitability for some courses with practice, teacher be able to consider teaching online according to the suitability. In case courses that requires to use instrument, which is unable to teaching online to continue teaching after January 4th – 17th, 2021. In which the teacher has discretion to propose to the dean according to suitability. In fact, the prevention of the spread of infectious diseases is strictly. For student in co-operation course that work in cooperative according to announcement of Rajamangala University of Technology Krungthep subject guidelines for student in co-operation course semester, 2/2020.”

For students' guidelines and the performance of personnel still follow announcement of Rajamangala University of Technology Krungthep subject Students guidelines and the performance of personnel due to the outbreak of the Corona virus 2019 (COVID-19) (issue 3) in number 2 – number 6.

Therefore, announced for further notice until there will be change

Issued on January 3rd, 2021.

The Acting President of Rajamangala University of Technology
Krungthep